Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "programmable logic controller" for claims 13 and 17 and "solid carbon dioxide" for claim 4 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-2, 5-8, 9-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Renzo et al., (EP 0542055 A1). Renzo et al., disclose a device comprising controlled cooling of grapes before being subjected to pressing and/or stalk stripping (indicating a step of transporting the grapes to a press or to a maceration vessel); charging the grapes with carbon dioxide from a tank 27 during transport via the cooling chamber 4A and 4B; a harvest reception vessel (inherent at the entry point of cooling chamber 4A (loading zone 2); a connection line to harvest reception vessel (inherent as the harvest to be loaded at the loading zone 2); a connection to the press (inherent because the press is performed after the cooling operation as disclosed above); each of the connection lines including conveyor 16, 17 being configured for transporting the grapes wherein at least one feed line (loading zone 2) is provided to at least one of the connection lines 25 through which carbon dioxide is fed into the at least one of the connection lines 16/17; a reservoir/tank contains both liquid and gaseous carbon dioxide (it is inherent a liquid carbon dioxide cylinder is topped by gaseous carbon dioxide); a gaseous carbon dioxide is brought into contact with grapes (as there is nozzles 6 and 21 it is inherent that gaseous carbon dioxide is brought into contact of the grapes); the grapes moves through movable door 60 as a grape movement valve; temperature sensors or probes 33 and 72 for detecting temperatures; a control circuit 34 controls the temperature of grapes with the help of temperature sensors and carbon dioxide and operation of fans 30 and nozzles 6/21 6; one or more valves 58 for movement of carbon dioxide. See Fig. 1-4, abstract, column2, line 41 to column6, line 4.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 3 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Renzo et al. Renzo et al., disclose the invention substantially as claimed as stated above. However, Renzo et al., do not specifically disclose if a liquid or solid carbon dioxide is brought into contact with grapes. However, for cooling grapes or any fruit by a cryogenic means like either gaseous or solid carbon dioxide is known feature in the art. Moreover, an ordinary skill of art is able to utilize the control circuit 34 to obtain flow of either a gaseous or liquid carbon dioxide on the grapes. Therefore, it is an obvious choice of an ordinary skill of art to choose gaseous or liquid carbon dioxide or solid carbon dioxide for cooling purposes of grapes or the like.
